"A student"

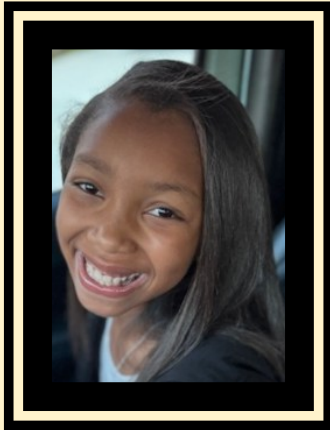

Taro D. Mason Jr. (TJ), a 9-year-old performer, is making his stage debut in "Cinderella Unleashed." His journey in the arts began in church, where he serves on the dance-mime ministry, blending movement and storytelling. This experience fostered his love for performing, building discipline, and confidence. Beyond the stage, TJ is also a dedicated athlete, playing recreational basketball for the Golden State Warriors through Newton County Parks and Recreation. He brings energy and joy to both performances and games. TJ is excited to be part of "Cinderella Unleashed."

Taro D. Mason

"Sandy and a student"

Actor

Kelani is a talented 10-year-old actor and dancer who has been performing since preschool. With her early experience in front of audiences, she has built a strong foundation in character expression, movement, and confidence. Her most recent performance in "Revelations 2" was a sell-out success. Kelani combines her acting skills with dance to bring energy and authenticity to her performances. She is dedicated, coachable, and eager to continue expanding her career in film, television, and live performance.

Kelani Rogers

Thank you

I want to express my gratitude to our incredible cast. I also want to extend a special thanks to the following individuals: Sam Moran III, our script supervisor; Frank James, our understudy and stagehand; Trudie Lee, our crafty stage and props manager; Janice McQuire, for her work on sound; and William Blackwell, our cameraman. I want to give a heartfelt thank you to our VIP guest, Gilga.

Additionally, we are grateful to Pastor Joseph L. Johnson and the West Oakland Baptist Women's Department, as well as the entire church family, for graciously hosting us. Finally, we appreciate everyone who has supported us with their presence, prayers, and donations.
